— WHO WE ARE

Read it in three sizes.

Boilerplate copy for editors. Quote any version below verbatim, with attribution to the Cockroach Janta Party.

01 · ONE LINE

A political party for the people the system forgot to count. Five demands. Zero sponsors. One large, stubborn swarm.

02 · SHORT
(1 SENTENCE)

The Cockroach Janta Party is a satirical Indian political movement that grew to two million members in five days, reclaiming a slur used against unemployed youth.

03 · MEDIUM
(1 PARAGRAPH)

The Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) is a satirical political movement founded on 16 May 2026 by Abhijeet Dipke as a response to a remark by the Chief Justice of India comparing unemployed youth to "cockroaches." Within seventy-two hours the movement crossed one million followers; by day five, more than two million had joined across platforms. The party is not registered with the Election Commission of India and accepts no donations, but its five-point manifesto is stated in earnest.

04 · LONG
(2 PARAGRAPHS)

The Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) emerged in India in May 2026, reclaiming a label used dismissively against unemployed young people. On 15 May 2026, Chief Justice of India Surya Kant made oral observations during a Supreme Court hearing that compared certain unemployed youth to "cockroaches" and "parasites of society." A day later, former AAP social-media strategist Abhijeet Dipke announced a platform for all the 'cockroaches' on X, naming four membership criteria: unemployed, lazy, chronically online, and able to rant professionally.

The movement crossed forty thousand members in twenty-four hours and two million cumulative followers within five days. TMC MPs Mahua Moitra and Kirti Azad publicly joined; the CJI later issued a clarification. The CJP is not registered with the Election Commission of India and accepts no donations — its five-point manifesto is presented as policy, not parody.

"There are youngsters like cockroaches, who don't get any employment or have any place in profession. Some of them become media, some of them become social media, RTI activists and other activists — and they start attacking everyone."

— WIDELY REPORTED, 15 MAY 2026

A day later, former AAP social-media strategist Abhijeet Dipke launched a platform for all the 'cockroaches' out there on X. By 18 May the movement had crossed one million followers on Instagram. The Chief Justice subsequently clarified through the press that the remarks had been misquoted, that the criticism was aimed at fake-degree holders, and that genuinely unemployed youth are "the pillars of a developed India."

— THE FIVE DEMANDS

Policy, not parody.

The party is satire. The demands are not. Each one names a specific institutional failure and a specific remedy. None of it is hypothetical.

01

No Rajya Sabha seat for a retiring Chief Justice.

Remove the perceived incentive of post-retirement political rewards undermining judicial independence.

02

Vote deletion treated as a terror offence.

The Chief Election Commissioner to be charged under UAPA where legitimate votes are removed from rolls in any state — regardless of which party governs it.

03

Fifty percent women's reservation in Parliament and Cabinet.

Without increasing the strength of Parliament. Half of all Cabinet positions reserved for women.

04

Cancellation of media licences held by Ambani- and Adani-owned outlets.

Restore plurality in news media. Bank accounts of named television anchors to be independently investigated.

05

A twenty-year bar on defectors.

Any MLA or MP who defects to another party shall be barred from contesting elections and from holding any public office for two decades.

— ELIGIBILITY

Religion no. Caste no. Gender no.

We do not ask. The four standards are these. Membership is free, lifelong, and revocable only by the member.

01

Unemployed

By force, by choice, or by principle. We do not ask which.

02

Lazy

Physically only. The brain may continue to spiral.

03

Chronically online

Minimum eleven hours a day, including bathroom breaks.

04

Can rant professionally

Provided the content is sharp, honest, and points at something that actually matters.

Tone of voice. Direct, dry, and self-deprecating. Satirical in structure; sincere in substance — the party is parody, the demands are not. Prefer short sentences, specific verbs, dated facts, and named accountability. Avoid glamour, slick corporate polish, victim posture, and hashtag-stuffing.
